BIOGRAPHY

James M. Carson is the Daniel P. Amos Distinguished Professor of Insurance in the Terry College of Business at the University of Georgia. Professor Carson teaches various courses in the UGA RMI program at the undergraduate, masters, and doctoral levels. Prior to joining the faculty at UGA, he served as the Midyette Eminent Scholar in Risk Management & Insurance in the College of Business at Florida State University (2001-2011) and as the Katie Research Professor at Illinois State University (1993-2001). Dr. Carson received his undergraduate and master's degrees in Finance from the University of Nebraska. Since earning his Ph.D. in Risk & Insurance from the University of Georgia, he has received several teaching and research awards. In 1998 he completed the Lloyd's of London Executive Education Program through Lincoln College at Oxford University.

Professor Carson's research is focused in (1) the economics of risk and insurance, (2) insurance markets, (3) insurer pricing and solvency, (4) regulatory and ethical issues, and (5) financial planning. His publications have appeared in various scholarly and professional journals including Journal of Risk and Insurance, Insurance: Mathematics and Economics, Journal of Banking and Finance, North American Actuarial Journal, Risk Management and Insurance Review, Journal of Insurance Regulation, Journal of Business Ethics, Journal of Insurance Issues, Scandinavian Actuarial Journal, Journal of Actuarial Practice, and other academic and professional journals. Professor Carson serves as a consultant and has offered expert testimony in litigation relating to business damages calculations, insurance contract interpretation, and life insurance valuation. He is a member of the Leadership Council and an At-Large member of the Executive Committee of the Griffith Insurance Education Foundation.

Professor Carson is a Past-President of the American Risk and Insurance Association, the world's premier academic risk and insurance organization. He also is a Past-President of the Western Risk and Insurance Association, a member of the Risk Theory Society, and a member of the Southern Risk and Insurance Association. He served as Interim Editor for the Journal of Insurance Regulation (2009-2010), as Editor for the Journal of Insurance Issues (2001-2005), and he serves as a referee for various publications and on several editorial boards, including Risk Management and Insurance Review, Journal of Financial Service Professionals, and Journal of Risk Education. He holds the CPCU, CLU, and ARM professional designations.

Dr. Carson has taught a wide range of courses since 1987, encompassing undergraduate, masters, and doctoral courses. He has taught 16 different courses at various universities including the University of Nebraska, the University of Georgia, Illinois State University, and Florida State University. In addition, he has instructed professionals in courses for the Risk and Insurance Management Society (RIMS), executives through the Lloyd's of London Study Tour (with the Katie School of Insurance), and professionals at various insurance organizations through FSU's premier online master's program in Risk Management and Insurance.

Professor Carson has spoken before various groups including academics, regulators, and industry professionals, with many of these presentations on the topics of insurer financial strength/insurer solvency, insurer operations, insurance products/performance, and the U.S. insurance market. Professor Carson has been a presenter at sessions on Capitol Hill from 2009-2017 for the House Financial Services Committee and staff. He also has lectured and served as moderator for the National Council of Insurance Legislators (NCOIL), and he served as an academic moderator for meetings of the International Insurance Society (IIS).
