

2018-19 BATEMAN PRIZE WINNERS

FIRST PLACE:

- Sam Tucker, "An analysis of transportation demand in Atlanta: How much will Atlanta's proposed MARTA expansions increase ridership?" (Kinsler)

SECOND PLACE (TIE):

- Brendan Abernathy, "The Effects of the Massachusetts Health Reform on Income and Labor Force Participation" (Skira)
- Jonathan Voos, "The Effect of Summer School Intervention Programs on Student Test Scores: a Fuzzy Regression Discontinuity Approach" (Kinsler)

2018-19 Senior Thesis Bateman Prize Nominees

- Brendan Abernathy, "The Effects of the Massachusetts Health Reform on Income and Labor Force Participation" (Skira)
- Annelise Cantrell, "Does Media Attention Elevate ISIS's Platform and Increase Suicide Attacks?" (Luo)
- Jordan Keig, "The Effects of Exposure to Female Political Leadership on Women's Equality in Post-Genocide Rwanda" (Cornwell)
- Claire McDowell, "Assessing Racial Influence within Monetary Bail" (Mustard)
- Dennison "Sonny" Romeo, "Ubereconomy: A study of taxis and TNCs in regulated economies," (Quan)
- Andrew Teal, "Assessing the Impact of Minimum Wage on Income Inequality" (Lastrapes)
- Sam Tucker, "An analysis of transportation demand in Atlanta: How much will Atlanta's proposed MARTA expansions increase ridership?" (Kinsler)
- Jonathan Voos, "The Effect of Summer School Intervention Programs on Student Test Scores: a Fuzzy Regression Discontinuity Approach" (Kinsler)
- Adam Wrigley, "Voluntary Renewable Portfolio Standards: An Empirical Analysis of South Dakota" (Bergstrom, Ag Econ)